Rosters and Busy Bees

The club is run solely by the parents, family members and friends of our riders.

Our rallies and events can not happen without helpers to set-up, dismantle, organise, run the canteen etc etc etc

- ▶ All members are expected to help set-up & pack-up on rally days. This is not counted as a roster.
- ▶ Each family are required to perform 4 rosters throughout the year.
- ▶ Our roster delegate, Karen Padley, will assist you at the start of the year to nominate roster duties and dates.
- ▶ If it turns out you can't do your nominated duty, you must find a substitute.
- ▶ Please report and sign off for your duty

Pony Club - it's bigger than just us

- ▶ Wanneroo HPC is 1 of 64 clubs affiliated with Pony Club WA across Western Australia
- ▶ There are 13 zones within Pony Club WA.
- ▶ Wanneroo HPC is part of the Swan Zone, along with Horsemens PC, Swan Valley PC and Herdsman PC.
- ▶ Some championships have zone teams. These teams are selected from riders within our zone clubs.

Pony Club WA - State Events

There are 7 state events scheduled for 2019.

- ▶ PCWA State Tetrathlon - 30-31 March - Dardanup
- ▶ PCWA State Show Jumping Championships - 17-18-19 May - State Equestrian Centre
- ▶ PCWA Bi-Annual Festival - 15-16 June - Avon Valley
- ▶ PCWA State Active Riding Championship Qualifier - 3-4 August
- ▶ PCWA State Dressage Championships - 16-17-18 August - State Equestrian Centre
- ▶ PCWA State Active Riding Championships - 7-8 September - Serpentine
- ▶ PCWA State Eventing Championships - 26-27 October - Dardanup

Qualification for State Events

Riders and horses must qualify to participate at PCWA State Events. In order to qualify:

- ▶ Entrants must have participated in THREE FULL WORKING RALLIES with the SAME horse/rider combination within the previous 12 months
- ▶ If riding 2 horses at the State Event, both horses must have qualified as above
- ▶ Half-day rally attendance does NOT count as a qualifying rally
- ▶ 1 of the 3 qualifying rallies may be done at another club as a visiting rider
- ▶ A maximum of 2 horses may be ridden by a rider at a rally, therefore a maximum of 2 horses can obtain a qualifying rally each time.
- ▶ A horse must participate in at least one rally lesson to enable the rally to be used as a qualifier

General Club Rules

- ▶ Rough Treatment of horses and ponies, misconduct and bad language by riders will NOT be tolerated.
- ▶ Sometimes you may feel the need to lunge your horse before you mount. Please check with Chief Instructor as lunging must be done in an enclosed area with correct gear, including boots and helmet.
- ▶ Tying up your horse or pony is NOT permitted down on the riding grounds. The risk is a loose horse which can be dangerous with young riders. Horses to be tied to floats or trees in the carpark area
- ▶ All riders attending rally must sign-in the attendance book at the clubrooms on the morning of the rally
